Micheal Macfarland

Arvada, Colorado
m_macfarland@live.com
231-758-2884

Desired Position: Jr Web Developer

A self-motivated Machine Programmer & Product developer looking to transition into a Web Development Role, I'm determined to produce functional, scalable products with attention to detail and accessibility needs.

EXPERIENCE

ATS Diesel Performance
Machine Programmer, Product development – August 2013 - present

Responsibilities:

- Program, setup, run and monitor CNC machines.
- Design and build fixtures, tooling, and prototype parts to meet engineering needs.
- Work collaboratively with engineering, supervisory, or other personnel to exchange technical information pertaining to production needs and product development, Manage vendor and factory relationships.
- Create and maintain product documents using SW PDM version control.
- Manage repositories for machine programs using Git version control.

EDUCATION

TeamTreehouse

December 2020 - present

- Front End Web Development Degree

Harbor Springs High School, Harbor Springs Michigan
High School Diploma, September 2004 - April 2008

REFERENCES

- References upon request.